

GEORGE TOWN FESTIVAL 2012

15 JUNE to JULY

Silat

Our Heritage for the WORLD

Silat - Our HERITAGE for The World
8.45pm, 15 & 16 June 2012
Fort Cornwallis

The majestic martial art of Silat was practised by Malay warriors from the dawn of Malay civilization some 2000 years ago until the 18th century. Now, the power and grace of this martial art will be showcased in a spectacular performance commissioned especially for the gala opening of GTF2012. Helmed by award-winning producer/director Saw Teong Hin, of Puteri Gunung Ledang fame, in collaboration with music director Saidah Rastam, production designer Liew Kung-Yu, lighting designer Dorothy P'ng and choreographer Aida Redza, the production is a hybrid of theatrics infused with traditional music and contemporary visuals.

Wushu Madness II
The Realm Between
 Ticket prices: RM43, RM63, RM83, RM103
 2.30pm & 8.30pm, 1 July 2012

Contemporary dance and the traditional martial art of Wushu represent two different art forms with different philosophies and approaches. Lee Swee Song and his Lee Wushu Arts Theatre company bridge the two distinct forms to create a unique stage performance. Their newest work taps into the wisdom and adaptability of Wushu and develops a new art form using simple and abstract elements. The piece explores the beauty and power of the human spirit through the interplay between contrasting movements, lighting and set design.

Islamic Paadal Qawalli
 8pm, 1 July 2012
 Dewan Sri Pinang

Conducted in Tamil language, the Penang State Indian, Muslim, Islamic Song Contest encourages youth groups to get involved in arts, culture and heritage activities. The ten top singers culled from a preliminary round will compete in finals held throughout GTF 2012.

8pm, 2 July 2012
Penang Performing Arts Centre

The Philippine Madrigal Singers is one of the world's most awarded choirs, consistently winning top prizes in prestigious choral competitions throughout the world. In 2009, they received the prestigious title of UNESCO 'Artists for Peace'. While they specialize in Renaissance madrigals, their repertoire also includes the avant-garde, folksongs, pop hits and novelty numbers.

The Manganiyar Seduction
Ticket Prices: RM63, RM83, RM103, RM123
8pm, 6 - 8 July 2012
Dewan Sri Pinang

The inventive Indian director Roysten Abel, introduces GTF2012 audiences to the world famous The Manganiyar Seduction, a unique confluence of traditional Rajasthani music and striking contemporary theatre. The formerly nomadic Manganiyar minstrels once performed for Rajasthani kings and worshipped Muslim saints as well as Hindu goddesses. Imagine a dark stage coming slowly to life as the conductor gestures and one by one the curtain-lined stacked boxes on stage light up to reveal white-robed musicians. The musical refrain slowly builds as more boxes and more musicians (42 altogether) begin singing, playing lutes, percussion and reed instruments in an increasingly frenzied symphony. An unmissable experience!
